We've been buying from John for many years, and his knowledge and expertise are beyond words. He gives advice and insights to us not as buyers, but more as friends or families. John is a person with integrity. We're very happy with his services and will have no hesitation to refer our family and friends to him.

Rusdy Joeng & Family

Buying a first property has never been easy for anyone. However, Ali has helped us to make it as simple as possible for us. His commitment and dedication on us as clients (now friends) have been unsurpassed. His motivating advice and detailed knowledge during the process was anyone could ever asked for. We would like to take this opportunity to thank him for all the extra effort that he has put into our new home. He under promised and over delivered, and is definitely beyond being a Real Estate agent.

Lina Tan & Family

We must say that we have more positive attitudes towards Property agents after dealing with John. John has never been pushy, always delightful, straight forward and honest. He always respect our privacy and gives us time to consider our purchases. He is very polite and humble and know when to reach us. We're extremely glad he is our contact person in dealing with property investments.
